DETAILED ACTION

The drawings are objected to because there is not Figure 19 (Two different figures are labeled Figure 17). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The sentence on p. 16, lines 3-6 from bottom of the page, is missing material.

Appropriate correction is required.

On p. 17, Figure 26 is not a "composite" (p. 17, line 4) of Figures 24, 25. One, two or all three of those figures are in error.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As to claim 1, how does an article describe ("describes") movement? Should "describes" read – undergoes --? Is there some special meaning for the term "describes"?

Claims 1-5,7,8,14,15,16,17,18,19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Abraham et al.

As to claims 1-3,14,17,18, Abraham et al teach (Figure 2) a system, including: spinning disk (article); heater head whose resistance varies with temperature (p. 3998, left hand col.); an edge defined between the flat top surface of the article and either the bump or pit; wherein, as the article undergoes movement the edge moves relative to the heater producing a variation in heat loss from the heater and the corresponding variation in resistance of the heater.

As to claims 4,19, note the shape of the grids in Figure 9.

As to claims 5,7,19, the heater will overlap, and have its bottom surface parallel to the top, planar surface of the disk at some time.

As to claim 8, note the bump in Figure 2.

As to claim 15, there is a slot between each of the 18 lines in Figure 9.

As to claim 16, each one of the lines 18 of Figure 9 is shaped like a spoke.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Abraham '030 & '110 employ heat to measure dimensions.

Wickramasinghe et al's test surface 22 has edges in Figure 2.

Murphy et al's test surface has edges in Figure 9.

Hauge position multiple sensors 10 to measure a single item 9 of interest.

Claim 20 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
